Chair:	Cll Ellis O'Neill
Parish Clerk:	Eleanor Parfitt
Adopted and Ratified by Parish Council:	02/06/2026
To be reviewed annually – Next due:	June 2027

1. INTRODUCTION

The name of the council shall be the 'Colsterworth and District Parish Council', which includes the villages of Colsterworth, Woolsthorpe by Colsterworth, Stainby, Gunby, North Witham and Lobthorpe.

Each member of the Parish Council shall be supplied with a copy of these Standing Orders which will be reviewed annually and ratified at the Annual Parish Meeting.

At all times, when acting in an official capacity as Parish Councillors, members will act in accordance with the Model Code of Conduct.

ROLE OF PARISH COUNCILLORS

Councillors are collectively responsible for making Council policy, for which they are accountable to the electorate. They are recognised nationally as the level of local government closest to people.

It is a requirement of the council that councillors having been appointed or co-opted as councillors, attend a New Councillor's training session provided by LALC - the short 3 hours version being the minimum required. Any councillor who does not attend such a meeting will not be able to attend a council meeting after their sixth month in position as a councillor and they will as a result be failing to comply with the clerk's summons.

Duties of individual Councillors and Council as a corporate body

- a) To make such Standing Orders as are necessary for the efficient administration of the Council's financial affairs.
- b) To appoint a Responsible Financial Officer
- c) To appoint an Internal and External Auditor in accordance with regulations in force at that time.
- d) To decide upon, and regularly review a Risk Management Strategy
- e) To delegate reconciliations and proper management of the Council's financial affairs half yearly to a Finance and Administration Committee (Scheme of Delegation)

Councillors are not directly involved in the day-to-day provision of services to the public. This does not mean that there should be no contact between Councillors and the Clerk on such matters and, Councillors may often find that they are asked by electors to pursue matters on their behalf.

Councillors have no executive authority and will need to deal with all matters either through a properly constituted meeting or in liaison with the Clerk concerning, for example, a Parish opportunity or problem.

There are no circumstances where an individual Councillor can issue an instruction to the Clerk or a Contractor. Likewise, a Councillor must never act "on behalf of the Council" in the organisation of any function or service.

Particular care should be taken in all types of communication, especially via comments to ensure understanding that individuals speak as a "Parish Councillor" and not on behalf of the Council as a whole.

Generally, the Clerk on behalf of the Council issues all correspondence unless delegated in terms of reference to Committee or Working Groups in conjunction with the Parish Clerk

Comments from the community should be addressed to the whole of the Council and not to any one Councillor as the Council is collectively responsible.

All Councillors will attend all meetings and in addition, Councillors can become members of Committees or Working Parties

Councillors take decisions on matters of major policy at general meetings of the Council, after having considered the recommendations of any Committee or Working Party.

ROLE OF THE PARISH CLERK/RESPONSIBLE FINANCIAL OFFICER

1. The Clerk is the professional advisor to the Council on matters of policy, and the executor of Council policy, i.e. in carrying out the instructions of the Council.
 - a) The Clerk must always obey the lawful and proper instructions of the Parish Council
 - b) The Clerk must comply with all the standing orders and known policies of the Parish Council
 - c) The Clerk is expected to co-operate fully with the Chair of the Parish Council
 - d) The Clerk will assist individual Parish Councillors, but the Clerk must never place the interests of individual Councillors above duty to the Parish Council as a whole
 - e) The Clerk must not be instructed by any individual Parish Councillor and, the Clerk must not be induced to disregard statutory duties
2. The Clerk also acts as an Executive Officer and uses statutory executive powers to take any appropriate executive action required for routine council administration that requires no policy decision. This power includes all urgent safety work.
3. The Clerk may seek information, draw up proposals, or present ideas or suggestions to the Parish Council or its Committees, Working Groups or the Chair.
4. As the official administrator the Clerk performs all routine administration without specific instructions from the Parish Council (a job description is provided on appointment in addition to specific duties set out in the Council's Scheme of Delegation, Financial Regulations and Policies and procedures)
5. This includes statutory duties such as service and issue of statutory notifications, attending meetings, and acting as a representative of the Parish Council.
6. The Clerk will arrange insurance, keep and file records, record interests and standing orders, prepare and distribute agendas, prepare minutes and press reports, examine reports and other data, present information, deal with all routine correspondence, and perform all other office work.
7. The Clerk also takes on the administration of finance, working with auditors and providing annual accounts, and other routine financial matters without specific instructions from the Parish Council, to include preparing budgets and accounts, orders, receipts, invoices, cheques, VAT returns, and audit returns.
8. The Clerk will monitor and balance accounts, present reports, make purchases and complete all other routine financial functions.
9. Many matters are delegated to the Clerk, who can make decisions on them working within established Council policies and lines of authority. The day-to-day management of services is the responsibility of the Clerk. Both Councillors and the Clerk must work within the law.
10. Within the framework of policies decided by Councillors, either at full Council or Committees level, the Clerk, often in consultation with the Chair, will take many decisions every working day.

SUB COMMITTEES AND WORKING GROUPS (Scheme of Delegation)

Properly constituted Committees and Working Groups identified in the Scheme of Delegation will consider relevant matters and report and advise the full Parish Council on matters relating to such things as:

- Planning
- Finance
- Handling Staff Matters
- Highways, Footpaths and Street Lighting
- Recreation and Amenities
- Environment and Public Health
- Law and Order
- Standing Orders
- Funding and Parish Projects

PARISH COUNCIL POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

1. In addition to these Standing Orders and Scheme of Delegation, there are the policies and procedures adopted by the Parish Council which set out exactly how decisions, actions and activities are carried out.
2. These Policies and Procedures will be developed and reviewed annually and published on the Council's website in accordance with the relevant legislation.
