A PARISH COUNCIL BIG THANK YOU TO ALL THOSE VOLUNTARY GROUPS, CLUBS, SOCIETIES, INSTITUTIONS THAT MAKE A "VILLAGE A VILLAGE". A VERY PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR TO ALL PARISHIONERS.

Colsterworth Resilience Forum co-ordinated by Helen Bill, supported by her husband Steve and army of volunteers. The start of 2020 saw the Coronavirus Pandemic change our lives in a way that we never imagined. When the first full Government lockdown for England was announced in March we saw the start of the Colsterworth Resilience Forum (C.R.F.) co-ordinated by Helen Bill supported by her husband Steve and an army of willing volunteers. Together as a team they were able to identify vulnerable people and provide support with shopping, prescription collection, transport to hospital, Doctor's appointments, many other requests of help and assistance and sometimes a friendly voice at the end of the telephone. By the summer, the Government believed the virus was under control the lockdown was eased. Although it was clear that life would not be back to normal, we were able to visit family and meet up with friends. As we moved into the Autumn it became clear that the virus was picking up and infection rates and deaths started increasing. On the Saturday 31st October, the Government announced that there would be further National restrictions to England starting on 5th November up to Wednesday 2nd December 2020. Again, selflessly and without hesitation Helen Bill mobilised the CRF volunteers to identify the vulnerable and provide support and assistance to those that need it. The Coronavirus has devastated all our lives in one way or another, but it has been heart-warming to see how our community has pulled together.

THE WHITE LION. The Pandemic has been a particularly tough year for Maddie and Dave, but they have continued to provide take away food throughout lockdown and their weekly Thursday night quiz by Zoom is enjoyed by many. The COVID-19 safe measures implemented when the White Lion re-opened provided a safe and pleasant experience with customers and trade picking up only to be dashed again with the new restrictions from 5th November. The White Lion is the hub of the village, let us support Maddie and Dave and their staff while they offer their take-away service until they can re-open again. Thank you to Maddie and Dave and their staff for continuing to be the hub of the village despite what has been thrown at them in 2020.

IN TOUCH. This was also affected by the pandemic, several of the volunteers were advised by the government to shield or were in the vulnerable group and advised to stay at home. As a result, it was not possible to distribute the In Touch in the months of April and May and was missed by many of you. From June some volunteers were able to return and new ones recruited and the In Touch Parish magazine has continued to be delivered through your doors. As another year is almost at a close it is time to thank all those involved in the preparation and distribution of the monthly village magazine – 1000 magazines each month. Thank you to John and Julia Hincks who co-ordinated the volunteers for the first part of the year and to Margaret Winn and husband Colin Russell who took on the co-ordinating roll in September not forgetting the 20 loyal volunteer helpers that distribute the village magazine through all kinds of weather; the editor Stuart Whitcombe for compiling and layout of the magazine, contributors and of course our many advertisers for their continued support.

VILLAGE MAINTENANCE. A big thank you to our handyman Graham Brumpton who always goes that extra mile keeping the grass verges and amenity areas trimmed and tidy including public footpaths and the nature trail.

LITTER PICKING. Thank you to our community cleaners Kevin and Mark who help keep our streets free from litter. They also go that extra mile literally to clear litter from village verges discarded by selfish motorists. This year we have seen a particular problem with dog fouling on the footpaths and overflowing dog waste bins. The Parish Council has addressed the overflowing dog waste bins by providing an extra bin on the Nature Trail close to the Woolsthorpe Playing area and paying Kevin and Mark for additional bin emptying each month. Please clean up after your dog and if the dog waste bins are full please take your dog's waste home and deposit in your own bin.

NATURE TRAIL. Despite the pandemic the number of volunteers has grown, and this continues to be an extremely successful parish council led project. Our thanks go to Maurice and Jackie Taylor and the team of volunteers who spend many long hours improving access to the Nature Trail. Keep the good work up.

COLSTERWORTH FESTIVAL OF REMEMBRANCE. Thank you to David and Debi Heath French for arranging the socially distanced Remembrance Service and to the Reverend Neil Griffiths for his moving service.

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS. To keep within the National Restrictions announced on 31st October 2020 a quick change was required to the original plan to put up the lights on the last Saturday in November. Thank you to Chris Smith for accepting my last minute request to pat test the lights, again without charge to the Parish Council and to Mo Taylor, Steve Grant, Mark Ramage and Brian Nash who dropped everything to ensure that the Yew trees in St John the Baptist Church cemetery were adorned with coloured lights. A thank you to them all but unfortunately, they had to deal with lots of dog poo deposited in the graveyard, very, very disappointing.

ROLL AND SCROLL. Thank you to Chris Kennedy of Roll and Scroll for his generous donation of two War Memorial Benches which have been sited on Bourne Road and one on Back Lane.

NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH. Our thanks to Helen and Steve Bill. This has been COVID-19 affected for 2020 but our thanks go to Helen and Steve who organise the scheme keeping us informed of police alerts. Thank you.

COMMUNITY SPEED WATCH. Due to the Pandemic Lincolnshire Road Safety Partnership (LRSP) have suspended Community Speed watch activities for each period of lockdown. We hope to pick this up again in the new year. Thank you to all of our Community Speed Watch volunteers, we now have two sets of equipment, if you can spare an hour or two and would like to be involved then please contact the Parish Clerk Sue Grant on Tel: 01476 861888.

HIGHWAY FAULTS. Reported faults have been COVID affected with longer response times. Lincolnshire County Council, as Highway Authority, is responsible for managing and maintaining the road network in Lincolnshire. They have a very good website for reporting faults e.g. potholes, pavement/road defects/street lights/missing damaged drain or manhole etc. Go to: <https://fixmystreet.lincolnshire.gov.uk/> Tel: 01522 782070 but the website is the most effective way and you can upload a photo of the problem. South Kesteven District Council also have a website where you can find local information and report issues and concerns such as anti-social behaviour, fly tipping, faulty streetlights and much more. Go to: <http://www.southkesteven.gov.uk/> Tel: 01476 406080 but again the website is the most effective way of reporting a problem.

INSPIRING WOMEN

Well. We did it! We celebrated our 103rd anniversary of the founding of our Institute, all socially distanced of course, albeit each member in splendid isolation with just a delivery "girl". There was not the usual three course lunch we usually have, but thanks to the combined efforts of the committee, everyone received a "goody bag". We didn't get a candle in a cake as had been suggested last month, but we did get a lovely slice of cake, beautifully boxed. Also in the bag was a individual teabag or a sachet of coffee, a craft kit to be completed, a stationery item and a sweetie quiz. It may not have been our usual lunch but it was greatly appreciated by everyone and the delivery "girls" enjoyed seeing and chatting to the recipients all at the social distance. When we meet next time, when we are allowed to meet that is, why not bring along the completed craft kit, all nicely made, and it can be a competition for the best and to be judged by the guest speaker. My three reindeers will look out of place if we can't meet until Easter. The answers to the quiz will be given in a few weeks, giving you plenty of time to remember some of the older names given to the bars and what some of them have been changed to.

There was a bit of business received from the Federation, they are seeking our views on whether they should postpone the Annual Meeting at Spalding until later in the year or just hold a business part required and then follow up later with the reports and entertainment later in the year. Our committee are going to let them know what we think. It will all depend on the promised "jabs" i should think.

The Federation's new speakers auditions have been held this week on zoom, and some of the committee were able to log in. Mind you, we still have to hear the ones which we have had to postpone from this year yet. The zoom meetings are easier than having to travel to a village hall, halfway across the county, usually in the dark. Being on the border of the Federation we usually have to travel the furthest, so zoom could become a popular solution.

The Federation newsletter was more newsworthy this month, hearing what other Institutes are doing. One thing which caught my eye was the report by a member Deeping St. James Institute and made interesting reading when they had been lucky to see the bearded vulture which had flown from Derbyshire where it had been for three months before stopping off between Crowland and Moulton and stayed there for a couple of days before continuing its journey via Sandy, Beachy Head and crossing the English Channel on its way home across France to the Alps where it had left months ago. Lucky ladies to have seen it. I wonder if it passed over Colsterworth on its way home, it might explain where the two pigeons which have been in the hedge and their balancing acts on the telephone wires for the last umpteen months opposite my house have disappeared to. Maybe the vulture dropped by for a take-a-way.

I still have some Christmas tree baubles from last year's church tree festival which weren't collected at our January and February meetings even though I did say I had them in the March edition of In Touch. Maybe you didn't want them back and are wondering where they are now that you have got the decorations out ready for this Christmas. Whatever the reason, please let me know. I am also holding someone's competition entry from the February meeting, a cone, not a diddy reel, more like an industrial size, of black cotton. Please fetch it before a black button falls off your coat and you are left wondering where you put the cone of cotton! Now, IF the meeting goes ahead in December, it will be on the 8th at the Sports and Social Club at the usual time of two o'clock. There is no guest speaker, it's a social afternoon. Fingers crossed, but I don't think that I have enough fingers to cross for it to happen, but in the meantime, keep well, keep safe and please wear the mask and hope that the scientists have got it right with the vaccines.

I thought it was time to have a look at my Christmas tree decorations and see if there was anything which might need replacing before it was too late to get the last bauble in the shop. However, it wasn't the baubles which I needed to replace, it was the most important item, the Christmas fairy. This is what she had to say:

I'm the fairy off the Christmas tree, I know I'm not looking me best,

I feel all scruffy and dirty and there's needles all stuck up me vest.

Me wand's all twisted and wilted, me wings feel as if they'll drop off

Me crown's no longer gilded, no wonder you titter and scoff.

*The dress got scorched by a candle, that were in... fifty four
Since then electric light bulbs flash on and off, what a bore!
You may wonder how I got here, it's a sad story I'm afraid to say
I'd been helping Santa to deliver the trees, well, he'd had such a long hectic day.*

I'd popped one in all sorts of places, even provided Trafalgar Square

That took some doing I'll tell you, then I found I'd got one to spare.

"What should I do with it?" I asked Santa, his words he never did mince

I thought it rude, most impolite, but I've been up here ever since!!!

So it's me off down to the shops before all the Christmas fairies get delivering the rest of the trees and save one of them her dignity.

Tribute to Arthur Joseph Carsley

Firstly on behalf of the family, I would like to thank you all for the kindness we have received.

Arthur had been a Parish Councillor and avid member of the Colsterworth community for many years, something which he held dear to his heart.

Arthur had a very interesting life and career, from serving his country by doing his national service in The Army Dental Corps to becoming a very successful Area Sales Manager for Neff.

More importantly a devoted father to Liz & Sue and husband to Kathy, inheriting Penny & David and a mass of grandchildren!

Arthur was delighted to become a great grandfather to beautiful Annabelle, he was exceptionally proud.

Arthur enjoyed village life to the full and was a keen conservationist. He also will be remembered for enjoying his daily pint of Guinness, catch up with friends and dogs tied up outside at the local White Lion! Hence the photo! A larger than life character whom will be sorely missed we are sure.

Kathy & Arthur were married at Colsterworth church and Kathy has been stalwart in her care of Arthur, especially after his severe stroke eleven years ago where Kathy's quick thinking prevented a car accident by Kathy taking hold of the vehicle's steering wheel and bringing the car to a halt. The quick response to Arthur within the hour from the medical team lead to a better prognosis.

Lots of different and wonderful memories of holidays abroad with the family and breaks in the UK with the beloved dogs. Meeting up with Liz and Sue and grandchildren at Belton Woods. More recently a week in Southwold, Suffolk, enjoying hearty breakfasts and daily walks with Kathy at his side along the beach.

The family thank everyone for their kind generosity of spirit and will be planning a memorial to Arthur at a more prudent time.

NATURAL HISTORY BULLETIN

Fallow Deer(a) were seen by early morning in Twyford Wood on 24th October. They are nocturnal grazers but shelter in the woods by day. At this time of the year they can be seen with the females. Seven year old stags have antlers at their best, with a palmate or flattened section which distinguishes them from all other deer found in the wild in Britain. They circle round in display areas cleared by trampling, surrounded by the frayed bark of trees, challenging other males with groans and belching noises. Fallow deer are believed to have been first introduced by the Romans and later reintroduced by the Normans who prized them for hunting. Later landscaped deer parks adjoined most stately homes. All our feral deer derive from escapees into the wild. By December the stags will have returned to their bachelor life. Does will remain in groups until their young are born in June.

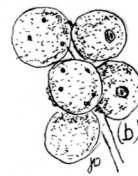

A story of rescued hedgehogs was sent in at the end of October. Two young ones had been found in a poor condition, thin and infested with fly larvae. They were cared for by cleaning of parasites and fed until they reached a weight to enable them to survive hibernation. The health of our local hedgehogs is due, in part at least to the care given to them in garden environments – food, safe areas for nesting and hibernation and territory allowed by passageways between gardens.

There are regular reports of kingfishers seen from downstream of the Nature Trail to areas behind Stamford Road gardens. More recently it was good to hear of them further upstream of the Witham between North and South Witham. A single Crossbill was observed in conifers in Twyford Wood. Parties of Crossbills are on the move but no Redwings seen by third week in November.

In Twyford Wood a row of young oak trees bears clusters of the Oak Marble Gall (b). Some of these have a single exit hole where the adult insect has emerged. Others have either the marks or exit holes of the smaller inquilines (those which live alongside the galls). Others on the ground had large holes where birds had taken out the fat grub of the gall causer.

In Colsterworth a mature oak is infected with the Knopper Gall. (c) These grow from the acorn cup forming folds and swellings but also penetrate the whole acorn making it inviable. Only reported in Britain in 1962 it has two generations, the other form found on Turkey Oak catkins. Cherry galls(d) were also found on fallen oak leaves in November as were the smaller spangle and button galls. Their common names describe these red galls well. Tangles of red threads hiding the pockets containing gall grubs are found on the wild rose bushes on the Nature Trail. A local name is Robin's Pincushion(e). Look for the Spiked Ball Gall (f) hidden under rose leaves. All these galls provide food from their grubs for birds in the depth of winter.

To Look For In December. Examine fallen leaves for galls and look for them revealed on bare twigs of trees. Jays in Twyford Wood may be feeding on the abundant acorns. Will Waxwings and other scarcer winter migrants return this winter? What will be the last sighting of the year of a Butterfly or Moth? I look forward to hearing from you at 61 Woolsthorpe Road, 860465 e-mail jnostler@hotmail.co.uk

A CHRISTMAS MESSAGE FROM OUR RECTOR

In these difficult times, I invite you to remember of the origins of Christianity, the birth of Jesus Christ, Son of God, Saviour of the World. The story of a child's birth 2000 years ago that brings us hope, love, peace and joy is one we all know well:-

- HOPE:- Because we know that there is more to our lives.
 - LOVE:- Because Jesus brings us all the love of God.
 - PEACE:- Because we can all have peace in our lives.
 - JOY:- Because we are part of Jesus's family bringing joy with others.
- Open your hearts to the knowledge of that first Christmas and remember that Jesus was given to us to bring us all that Hope, Love, Peace and Joy. Visit our Church and celebrate Jesus's birth 2000 years ago. For up to date information, please consult www.colsterwoth5.org.uk or church notice boards

Don't hesitate to phone:
101 - non emergency
